Daily Fashion Hint

BY LA RACONTEUSE.
Not quite so long, nor yet quite so voluminous as the summer mantles is this motor coat, which can be also used for street wear, of "Mandarine" velvet broadcloth, a fabric which makes a fall debut. This wrap is a two-piece model, front and back, the sleeves being cut in the width, the fronts crossing. A broad band of silver fox makes a round collar, trimming the front revers, continued up to the crossing. The cuffs, a high patch pocket, fastened by three square buttons, of sapphire blue and white enamel, make the only trimming of this smart looking coat.

THE BY-ROAD.
(Dedicated to Miss Burton D. Turner.)
O, some will like the high-road
With hurry everywhere—
But not for me the road so broad,
That goes to Here and There.

I know a lane—a winsome way,
With roses blooming fine,
Where fields are green and very gay,
I feel that path is mine.

It's a quiet one—the path I know;
Great mountains block its way.
A sweet girl's laughter welcomes so,
About the close of day.

Alfalfa scent and orange bloom,
And bobolinks a-singing—
Out there I know there's ever room
For one who loves is bringing.

Dear path—my winsome way!
Its course may not be true.
I only know that some fair day
I'll lead me back to you.

Tom C. Evans.

A Fashionable Coat

Described by Olivette

COATS will certainly be longer than last winter, although there is still a certain latitude of choice in this respect. In the shorter coats there is a decided tendency to a square and box-like effect.

Dark blue, black and brown are about the best colors of the season. They may be had in homespuns, chevots, serge, diagonal, cote de cheval, gabardine, bengaline and the most popular weaves—duvety, velour de laine, or peau de peche, which means "skins of a peach," and is of the same softness of texture.

The particular suit I am giving you today is of dark brown gabardine.

The coat, cut in conservative length, will be much more becoming to most people than were the short ones.

The collar and cuffs are of pancy duvety, and the front and back seams are finished with satin pipings. A stitched belt fastens in the middle front with a huge button of pearl and jet. The front seams are double welted affairs finished by embroidered arrows. The long fitted sleeve is set in an ordinary arm-hole. The skirt is a three-gored model with a front panel framed by the same seams as the coat.

Olivette.

BEACHEY COMPLETES TRIPLE LOOP IN AIR WITH BIPLANE
San Diego, Cal., Nov. 28.—Lincoln Beachey, the aviator, executed a triple loop with his biplane here yesterday. The feat was performed easily and at no time was the intrepid aviator in danger of losing control of his machine.

Strapped in his biplane, Beachey circled upward to an altitude of nearly 3000 feet. Then the frail craft darted downward several hundred feet, described a vertical circle and rose again. Another drop to within a few hundred feet of the earth and the aviator turned a second somersault. Righting his biplane, he ascended 1000 feet, negotiated a third loop and came swooping down to earth.

Does Your Hair Spoil Your Face

If your glass reflects good looks—nice features that would make you considered pretty if only your hair were more becoming—don't mourn about it. Instead of mourning or envying others whose hair is prettier than yours, use Harmony Hair Beautifier, and let others envy you. It is a delightful liquid hair dressing to beautify the hair—make it glossy, softer, easier to put up in graceful waves, folds that will "stay put." It polishes the hair until it shines, and overcomes the unpleasant, oily odor, with a delectable fresh rose fragrance. Harmony Hair Beautifier is very easy to apply—simply sprinkle a little on your hair each time before brushing it. Contains no oil; will not change the color of hair, nor darken gray hair.

To keep hair and scalp dandruff-free and clean, use Harmony Shampoo. This pure liquid shampoo gives an instantaneous rich lather that immediately penetrates to every part of hair and scalp, insuring a quick, thorough cleansing. Washed off just as quickly, the entire operation takes only a few moments. Contains nothing that can harm the hair; leaves no harshness or stickiness—just a sweet cleanliness.

Both preparations come in odd-shaped, very ornamental bottles, with sprinker tops. Harmony Hair Beautifier, $1.50. Harmony Shampoo, $1.00. Both guaranteed to satisfy you in every way, or your money back. Sold in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store—one of the more than 7,000 leading drug stores of the United States, Canada and Great Britain, which do the big Harmony laboratories in Boston, where the many celebrated Harmony Perfumes and Toilet Preparations are made. one of the most reactionary of the reactionary Democrats. He and governor Hunt are said to be bitter enemies. During the session of the legislature last spring it was Callaghan who furnished the now famous "tax committee" with most of the data it used in assailing the Hunt administration. The anti-Hunt Democrats are said to be strong for Callaghan.
